

Challenge

Create a before / after list to compare the ways in which at least four characters have changed over the course of the story. Give reasons.

Example

Here is the beginning of an answer based on 'The Recruit' by Robert Muchamore:

Name of character	Characteristics at beginning of story	Characteristics at end of story	Why has he / she changed?
James	Acts tough, but Frightened Vulnerable Physically quite weak Unhappy, grieving for his dead mother Has few real friends Gets into trouble easily	Brave Fearless Strong and fit Able to form close friendships Has confidence and self-respect	He has had to undergo intensive training to become part of 'cherub'. This has included tough mental and physical challenges. He has overcome his fear of water and swimming. During this period he has bonded with other characters, as they've had to support one another - he's become especially close to Kerry. In the book he is instrumental in stopping a terrorist group from causing chaos, and gains much kudos within 'cherub' for doing this. This greatly increases his confidence.
