

Challenge

Write a letter to the author of the book you have read and explain why you liked or disliked their book, exploring the positive and negative issues raised in their book. Many sure it is written in correct formal

